Membership in the Armstrong Enderby Riding Club is accepted by the member subject to the express condition that the members take upon themselves all risk incurred in any activity organized or sponsored by the club or officer or director of the club. Without restricting the generality of the foregoing, neither the club or any officer, director, member or agent of the club shall be held liable for loss, damage, or injury of or to any member resulting directly or indirectly from an act, neglect or default of any person during such activities. The AERC is a non-profit association, and is solely operated by its volunteer members.

- Membership in the Armstrong Enderby Riding Club entitles members to discounted exhibitor fees, eligibility to compete for year end awards and and senior members to voting privileges at meetings and the opportunity to run for elected office.
- All AERC members are encouraged to be members of Horse Council BC.
- All memberships expire on December 31st.
- Memberships will not be retroactive for the purpose of accumulating points for year end awards. Points for year end awards will begin to accumulate on the date membership is received.
- All members are encouraged to participate in club activities.
